

Summer Samba A Tribute to Antonio Carlos Jobim

Jobim's music could have only come from the Southern Hemispheric climes, and Kozuch knows how to tap into the humidity. ~All About Jazz

Ponzio's fingers began dancing on the piano keys, and another jazz concert was underway.

Summer Samba is a tribute show honoring Brazil's, Antonio Carlos Jobim, one of the most important songwriters of the 20th century. He was a primary force behind the 'bossa nova' or 'new style' of music and his songs have been performed by many singers and instrumentalists within Brazil and internationally. Perhaps most widely known as the composer of "The Girl from Ipanema", Jobim left us a repertoire of songs that are now considered jazz standards, not to mention influencing composers style for generations to come. The evening features songs of love, self-discovery, betrayal and joy and such international favorites as:

The Girl From Ipanema
Corcovado/Quiet Nights*
Waters of March*
How Insensitive*
Summer Samba (So Nice)
The Look of Love

*Songs in English and Portuguese
